- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- Complimentary 1 hour welcome massage
- 7 pm welcome dinner

DAY 3 – January 23rd

Travel day to Eastern Bali. Enjoy a ride along the coast through beautiful rice fields to Candidasa, a secluded and peaceful seaside area. Along the way we will visit Goa Lawah Temple, known as the Bat Cave Temple, one of Bali's six holiest temples. This temple has been worshipped since around 1,000 A.D. It is said that the bats provide sustenance for the legendary giant snake, Naga Basuki, which is also believed to live in the cave.

Our home will be a beautiful beach front hotel, the Rama Ocean View. All rooms are decorated with Balinese harmony in mind. In the evening we will have dinner on our own at the ocean front restaurant.

Included:

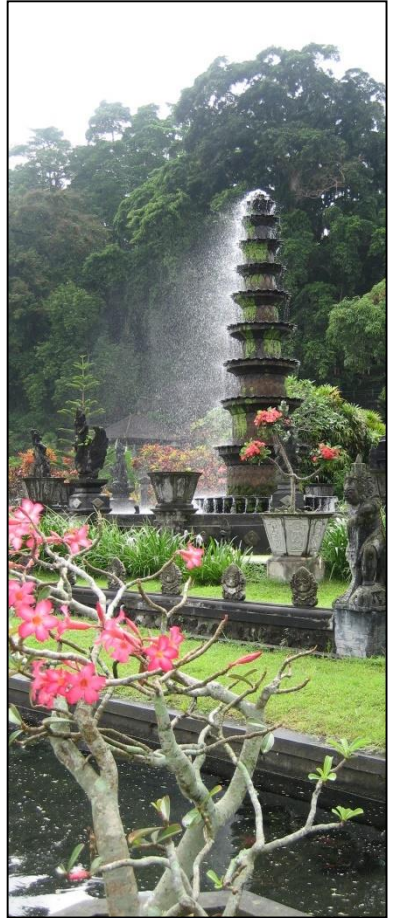

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- 11:30 am Depart for East Bali, visit Goa Lawah (Bat Cave temple en route
- Check into hotel Rama Candi Dasa

DAY 4 – January 24th

After lunch we will travel to the water palace in Tirtagangga, which means sacred waters of the Ganges. These waters are considered to be holy and are used for religious ceremonies. On the way back to our hotel we will stop at Tenganan, an ancient Bali Aga village, famous for double ikat weavings and lontar palm leaf carvings.

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- Afternoon Tour to Tirtaganga and Tenganan

DAY 5 – January 25th

After our morning program, we are free to enjoy the hotel pool and optional spa activities. In the afternoon, Spirit Tours will lead an optional walk through the rice fields near the hotel.

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program

DAY 6 – January 26th

After our morning program we will head to the village of Ubud, the artistic and cultural center of Bali, where we will spend 6 days and 5 nights. We will stay at the Komaneka Rasa Sayang Resort hotel located just off of Monkey Forest road, in the center of Ubud's bustling activity. Ubud is the home to Bali's famous art museums and is a shopper's paradise. The Ubud market has an exotic and vast array of locally produced handicrafts.

In the evening we will dine together at Cafe Wayan.

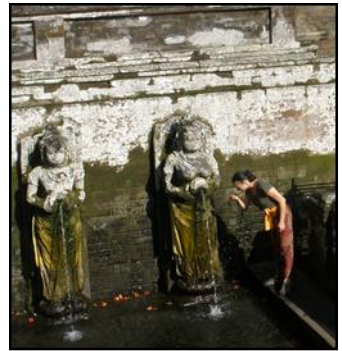

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- Transfer to Ubud

DAY 7 - January 13, 2015

After our morning program, you will have free time. Explore nearby salons such as Ubud's old style family run Nur Salon with its Mandi Lulur or flower bath massage treatment, one of the most popular optional experiences on our tours.

After lunch we will visit Goa Gaja, the Elephant Cave, believed to have been a monastery in the 11th century. The entrance to Goa Gaja features the mouth of a mystical creature with many detailed carvings in stone. In the evening we will enjoy a performance of authentic Balinese dance by Semara Ratih (Sun and Moon,) one of Bali's premier dance and gamelan groups.

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- Tour to Goa Gaja
- Dance performance

DAY 8 – January 27th

After our morning program we will visit Pura Gunung Kawi Sebatu, one of Bali's prettiest temples. This is a quiet temple in homage to Visnu, the preserver, who rules over water.

The natural springs and waterspouts deliver holy water which travelers may collect. A statue of Saraswati, in the middle of a large koi pond, graces the temple.

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program
- Visit to Gunung Kawi Sebatu

DAY 9 – January 28th

This is a free day for you to explore optional activities such as biking, rafting, cooking classes, shopping or museum tours.

Morning spiritual program will continue as scheduled. If there is sufficient interest, we may arrange a no host group dinner at a local restaurant for traditional Balinese food.

Included:

- 9 am breakfast
- 10 – 11 am daily spiritual program

DAY 10 – January 29th

This morning begins with an early pilgrimage to the west coast of Bali, to visit the famous seaside temple, Tanah Lot.

The temple sits on a large offshore rock which has been shaped continuously over the years by the ocean tide. At the base of the rock is a holy fresh water spring where we will receive blessings before our prayer service.

In the evening we will have a farewell dinner.

Included:

- Pilgrimage to Tanah Lot
- Farewell dinner

DAY 11 – January 30th
